On April 14, 1912, the Titanic sank into the icy cold waters of the northern Atlantic. The next morning, the liner Carpathia rescued 705 survivors. One thousand five hundred twenty-two passengers and crew were lost. Subsequent inquiries attributed the high loss of life to an insufficient number of lifeboats and inadequate training in their use.

A dramatic night scene featuring the RMS Titanic. The ship is illuminated by its own lights, with its four iconic funnels visible against a dark, starry sky. In the foreground, a lifeboat is filled with people, their faces lit by the ship's lights. The water is dark and calm, reflecting the lights from the ship and the stars above.

Hebrews 2:1-3 (NKJV)

<sup>1</sup>Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. <sup>2</sup>For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, <sup>3</sup>how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him,
